

Matt Hern from Findre conducted a brilliant and interactive presentation to our members and friends in March 2007 on the habits that distinguishes money masters from money disasters.

Some verbal feedback we got from chatting to participants afterwards indicated that they really enjoyed it, and that Matt's engineering background was beneficial because he knows how to communicate to this type of audience and get the message across.

Helene Fung

Vice-Chairperson

Graduates of the Last Decade Affinity Group (Western Australia)

Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers

